

ANNUAL PUBLIC FILE REPORT
COVERING THE PERIOD: 5/22/2009 – 5/22/2010¹

STATION(S): KLEW TV

The purpose of this EEO Public File Report is to comply with Section 73.2080(e)(6) of the FCC'S 2002 EEO Rule. This EEO Public File Report is on behalf of the employment unit consisting of KLEW TV.

The FCC's 2002 EEO Rule requires that this Report contain the following information:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the Station comprising the Station Employment Unit during the Applicable Period;
2. For each such vacancy, the recruitment source(s) utilized to fill the vacancy (including, if applicable, organizations entitled to notification pursuant to Section 73.2080c(1)(ii) of the new EEO Rule, which should be separately identified), identified by name, address, contact person and telephone number.
3. The recruitment source that referred the hiree for each full-time vacancy during the Applicable Period;
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies during the Applicable Period and the total number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source utilized in connection with such vacancies, and
5. A list and brief description of the initiatives undertaken pursuant to Section 73.2080c(2) of the FCC rules.

For the purposes of this Report, a vacancy was deemed "filled" not when the offer was extended but when the hiree accepted the job offer. A person was deemed "interviewed" whether he or she was interviewed in person, over the telephone or by e-mail.

¹Reporting period ends 5/22/2010 to allow sufficient time to finalize and post information in Public File and station website(s) by 6/1/2010. Any positions filled after 5/22/2010 will be included on the 2011 Annual Public File Report.

Section III: Narrative Description of Initiatives undertaken during the year. (Include dates of job-fairs, names of station employees who attended, short description of activities that occurred, etc.)

- '09-'10 Participation in the Fisher Broadcasting Minority Scholarship Program.
Fisher Broadcasting has sought to attract minority students into careers in broadcasting with annual scholarships. The scholarships have included training programs in technical areas and on-air. Applicants must be enrolled in a broadcasting, marketing, or journalism curriculum and must be of a non-white origin. Interested candidates can contact KLEW for an application. Scholarship program information is made available on the station websites and at various events attended by station personnel.
- '09-'10 Participation in the Idaho State Broadcasters Association Scholarship Program.
KLEW TV contributes annually to the scholarship fund to assist with scholarships to Idaho college students pursuing careers in broadcasting. Fred Fickenwirth, Station Manager, assisted with the recruitment and recommendations of candidates.
- '09-'10 KLEW TV Internship Program
KLEW TV offers internships to college students interested in broadcasting throughout the year. These internships, available in News, Production and Sales, are supervised by Greg Meyers, News Director and Production Manager, Dan Stellmon, Local Sales Manager, and Fred Fickenwirth, Station Manager, and offer opportunities for college students earning credit to learn more about broadcasting careers. Five students from Brigham Young University, Lewis-Clark State College and the University of Idaho participated this year.
- 9/10/2009 Guest Speaker, Washington State University
At the invitation of Glenn Johnson, Fred Fickenwirth, Station Manager KLEW TV, spoke to communication students about broadcast jobs and what positions, including internships, KLEW TV offered.
- 9/30/2009 Station Tour
KLEW TV offers tours of the station to students groups, discussing broadcasting careers and qualifications necessary. Two tours were offered to local Boy Scout and Cub Scout troops, with their parents during the evening newscasts to offer the students an up-close and personal view of how a newscast is produced.
- 12/2/2009 Guest Speaker, Washington State University
